

Power Engineering Practicum - March 16-20, 2026

Attention Power Eng students Utility/Power Practicum

Make your spring break work for you and get a leg up on the job competition!

APPLICATION IS OPEN NOW

40 hour on-site class; Multiple state-wide locations

EE 483 (1 credit):

- Week long practicum on a variety of power engineering topics (for example: substation design, power scheduling, rates/economics, transmission design, SCADA, protective relaying, voltage control)
- Learn from professionals in the field at various utilities and power-related companies
- Pre-requisites Engineering major with interest in Power
- Lodging subsidies available for those who need them
- Limited enrollment – apply by January 20 – seats may fill sooner
- Complete Application & email: Jeannine Burke, EME 16, burkejl@wsu.edu

EXCELLENT ADDITION TO YOUR RESUME

Great way to build your professional network

—Previous Participants are eligible for practicum if space is available—

WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY

INFORMATION SESSION

FRIDAY, JANUARY 16 – 2:30 P.M.

VECS 105 and Zoom \(meeting link\)

Learn more about the Utility/Power Practicum with Drs. Hang Gao and Javier Guerrero (WSU Everett).

Application deadline is January 20 so don't wait!

